Project: School of Knowledge Production and Transfer for Global Economy and Governance (SKOPE4GEG), 18-COP-0032

Foresight study – 2030 LABOUR MARKET FOR KNOWLEDGE PRODUCTION AND TRANSFER, has been published by Editura Universitara, both in Romanian and English. They are available on the website or you can get a hard copy participating in the project conference in July 2022.

A short break from the restrictions caused by the pandemic, allowed us to organize the first multiplication event. The Workshop – Building education capacities in the world of work, took place on July 16th, 2021 at Marshal Garden Hotel, Bucharest, Romania. The participants were excited about the topic and we had very fruitful discussions based on the Foresight study and upcoming study about barriers and support factors for knowledge production and transfer career.
